Responsible Students

Principal's Message

Family Fun Night

The new school year has started very positively. Students are engaged and it is lovely to see classes developing an identity and becoming a 'learning team and a team of learners'.

On Wednesday 27 February everyone is invited to come along and celebrate the great start to the 2019 school year. See the flyer for details. See you there!

What are you doing on Valentine's Day?

Why not come down for a great Trivia Night at the Huskisson Pub? All monies raised go directly to the school. Last trivia night $700 was raised, while participants had a great fun and social night. Table bookings are essential, as the night is very popular.

Thursday 14 February starting at 7pm. See you there!

Early Starters

Just a reminder, that supervision by staff in the morning starts at 8.30am. We have several students arriving before this time. Staff cannot assume supervision responsibility for these students. Our 'Before and After' facility is open from 7.30am in the morning to support parents who start work early. Thank you for your support in anticipation.

House Captains

Congratulations to the following students who were elected by their sports house peers to be House Captains for 2019

Library News Term 1 Week 2

Library lessons are in full swing and it was absolutely fantastic seeing so many students with library bags and welcoming smiles. It is really important to remember when it is library day for your child so that a regular lending routine can be established. We have so many great books in our collection and it would be terrible for students to miss out if they have forgotten to return books each week. If your child has not finished reading their book during the week, please return it anyway so that the loan can be renewed.

Just a reminder that on Mondays, Kindergarten, Year 1 and Year 2 students will have their library sessions. On Wednesdays, the Year 3/4 and 5/6 classes will attend the library for their lessons and library time. All students will again receive the benefit of two teachers for their library session where the classroom teachers and I plan our lessons together to help reinforce and build on themes being taught in the classroom.

Our technology rotations in Stage 2 and Stage 3 have commenced successfully and the students are continuing to learn coding, touch typing, building robots and synthesizers, coding using the Osmo systems and challenging themselves with online Mathletics activities. It is not too soon to think about the technology that you will be purchasing for your child to support our BYOD program.

Also, Happy Birthday to Mrs Clark for Thursday! She works hard for our school and I hope she has a terrific day. Happy Reading.

Mrs Hanson

Librarian

Keeping Crunch&Sip® Fresh

Why not use the following ideas as launch activities to kick start or refresh Crunch&Sip® in your school?

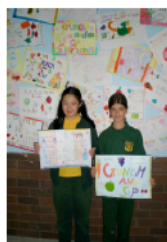

- Hold a poster competition. Display the posters around the school and award winners with healthy meals from the canteen
- Record the number of students in each class participating in Crunch&Sip® for a term. Award the winning class a fruit 'n' veg platter
- Choose a fruit or veg of the week each week for a term, and ask students to research how it grows, where it originally came from and how it is eaten
- Hold a Fruit 'n' Veg Mini Olympics on the last day of term (carrot/zucchini baton relay, potato shot put, kiwi fruit and spoon race etc)
- Ask local farmers to come and speak to students about how their produce is grown
- Contact your local newspaper to do a story about Crunch&Sip® at your school
- Hold Crunch&Sip® canteen promotions each term, featuring a fruit 'n' veg meal deal
- Link the classroom with the canteen using the curriculum activities in the School Resource Pack
- Link Crunch&Sip® with environmental studies – reducing waste, vegetable gardens or worm farms
- Incorporate fruit and veg into other curriculum areas - try using the Fruit 'n' Veg Month resources for ideas
- Become certified - form a committee, develop a policy and have it endorsed by the school community (e.g. P&C/P&F) to become certified
- Hand out brochures at Kindy orientation/ parent information sessions at school
